GLOBAL HORIZON PORTFOLIO COMMENTARY

The recovery in the equity markets that started in the middle of the second quarter continued a pace in the third quarter before stopping to take a breath in September. During this period, specifically in August, the S & P 500 had its best month ever since 1984 with a gain of 5.35%, for UK (Sterling) investors. The actual gain for the index was higher as Sterling strengthened by some 2.3% against the Dollar.

During the third quarter, the model performed strongly benefiting from strong global equity markets. Our holdings which have exposure to technology companies did very well during this period, with returns of 10.76% and 9.65% (respectively) for our holdings in the Baillie Gifford Global Discovery and Axa Framlington Global Technology fund. It is of little wonder that some of these stocks have gone parabolic as five years of 'digital adoption' has been squeezed into months, as a result of a change in the consumers' behaviour.

We remain comfortable with our overall asset allocation and fund manager selection and no changes are planned. However, we will continue to diligently manage the model to ensure its suitability for the ever changing financial and economic conditions.

STRATEGY DESCRIPTION

This strategy seeks to achieve long-term capital growth, using a fund of funds approach to investment. The strategy is primarily stock market based. The portfolio is comprised of funds that invest across a range of geographical areas. However, the allocations are focused primarily on those sectors, themes, regions and parts of the market that the investment team feel present the best opportunities to generate attractive long-term returns. The funds are selected on a discretionary basis from a number of top fund management houses. The model will be rebalanced at the beginning of each calendar year, which is when changes to fund selection or allocation to themes would be altered. This differs from the other models run by Beckett Asset Management, which are rebalanced quarterly, with any changes to fund selection or asset allocation made at this point.

This strategy is potentially suitable for investors seeking capital growth over the long-term (15 years plus), and prepared to accept a high level of investment risk, i.e. accept the normal risks of investing in the various markets.
