MANAGER COMMENTARY

In April 2025, Global Equity markets delivered mixed and broadly weaker performance. The UK's Index of top 100 Companies declined by 1.03%², weighed down by losses in financials and energy. The US S&P 500 also fell, posting a 0.8%² loss amid ongoing concerns over economic momentum and soft corporate earnings. European Equities, as measured by the MSCI Europe ex-UK Index (MXEU), declined by 1.26%², reversing recent gains as investor sentiment softened. In contrast, Japan's TOPIX Index edged higher by 0.32%², supported by selective strength in industrials and exporter stocks, though gains were modest.

In currency markets, the US dollar (DXY) experienced broad-based weakness, falling 4.5%² during the month on shifting interest rate expectations and softer US economic data. Against the British pound, the dollar declined by 3.18%², reinforcing the broader theme of dollar depreciation.

Overall, April reflected investor caution, with modest gains in Japan offset by declines across major developed equity markets and a notable retreat in the US dollar.

The fund was down 1.53%¹ in the month, compared to its benchmark of minus 1.09%¹. At asset allocation level, Alternative Assets and UK Equities were the best performers, with returns of 4%³ and 2%³. In contrast, Overseas Equities and Property were the two largest detractors of performance, with returns of negative 0.5%³ and 0.75%³, respectively. In Alternatives, the Renewables Infrastructure Group was the top performer with a return of 5.85%³, followed by the Royal Mint Responsibly Sourced Gold ETF at 2.1%³. The Premier Miton Responsible UK Equity Fund performed well, with a return of 3% among the UK holdings, followed by Janus Henderson at 2%³. There were no significant changes to the holdings, as the managers remain comfortable with the overall shape of the fund.
